Letter from our Pastor

Howdy,

Recently while I was in El Salvador I had the opportunity to reread Pope Francis' book, The Joy of the Gospel. Remembering that Pope Saint John Paul II called us to a "New Evangelization", our Holy Father reflected on evangelization in his book. In this Lenten season it is good for us to reflect on this as well.

Pope Francis writes, "The salvation which God offers us is the work of his mercy. No human efforts, however good they may be, can enable us to merit so great a gift. God, by his sheer grace, draws us to himself and makes us one with him. He sends his Spirit into our hearts to make us his children, transforming us and enabling us to respond to his love by our lives."

This is why Lent is so important for us: that we renew our efforts to allow God to transform us and draw us to himself to make us evangelizers for the world. All of our Lenten efforts are for this purpose.

May you have a blessed Lenten season,

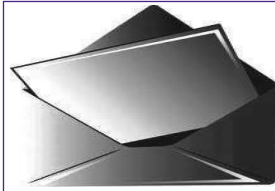

Father Mike

Lent is here and we invite you to consider making a morning day of reflection to help aid your penance, prayer and fasting during this time of deep reflection.

Saturday, February 24th
from 9:00 AM to Noon,
Fr. Ryan and Deacon Dennis will lead you on a journey

INTO THE DEPTH OF YOUR HEARTS

Carta de Nuestro Párroco

Que tal,

Recientemente, mientras estaba en El Salvador, tuve la oportunidad de volver a leer el libro del Papa Francisco, La Alegría del Evangelio. Recordando que el Papa San Juan Pablo II nos llamó a una "Nueva Evangelización," nuestro Santo Padre reflexionó sobre la evangelización en su libro. En esta temporada de Cuaresma, es bueno para nosotros reflexionar sobre esto también.

El Papa Francisco escribe: "La salvación que Dios nos ofrece es obra de su misericordia. Ningún esfuerzo humano, por buenos que sean, puede permitirnos merecer un don tan grande. Dios, por su pura gracia, nos atrae a sí mismo y nos hace uno con Él. Él envía su Espíritu a nuestros corazones para hacernos sus hijos, transformándonos y capacitándonos para responder a su amor con nuestras vidas."

Es por eso que la Cuaresma es tan importante para nosotros: renovamos nuestros esfuerzos para permitir que Dios nos transforme y nos atraiga a sí mismo para hacernos evangelizadores para el mundo. Todos nuestros esfuerzos de Cuaresma son para este propósito.

Que tengan una bendita temporada de Cuaresma,

Padre Mike

The Speck and the Stick

Jesus said, "Why do you see the speck in your neighbor's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye. You hypocrite! First take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will be able to see clearly to take the speck out of your neighbor's eye" (Mt 7:3-5). How awful it would be to have Jesus say these words to us at the moment of our death. Each of us is imperfect; complaining about our spouse instead of working on our own personality flaws is hypocritical. If you want to change your marriage and spouse, first change yourself. Science tells us for every action there is a reaction. As you change your behavior, your spouse's behavior will change too. Annoying habits and strong personality defects can be very irritating, but the rude or angry response to these defects can drive a wedge between spouses. Instead of trying to change your spouse, work on changing your response to them. A rude, negative or demeaning response always makes the situation worse and is a sin against love for which you are responsible. Turn a negative into a positive and grow in holiness by not speaking.

Share this with your spouse. Ask them what annoying habit they would like to see you change. Don't make an excuse for it. This week, as often as you can, simply try to correct it. It may take months to replace a bad habit with a good habit. Don't give up. Begin to say The Chaplet of Divine Mercy as part of your healthy, new habit. Ask Jesus to help you be kind to your spouse and increase your capacity to love.

Jesús dijo: "¿Qué pasa? Ves la pelusa en el ojo de tu hermano, ¿y no te das cuenta del tronco que hay en el tuyo? ¿Y dices a tu her- mano: Déjame sacarte esa pelusa del ojo, teniendo tú un tronco en el tuyo? Hipócrita, saca primero el tronco que tienes en tu ojo y así verás mejor para sacar la pelusa del ojo de tu hermano."(Mt 7: 3-5). Qué horrible sería que Jesús nos dijera estas palabras en el momento de nuestra muerte. Cada uno de nosotros es imperfecto; es hipócrita quejarse de nuestro cónyuge en lugar de trabajar en nuestros propios defectos de personalidad. Si desea cambiar su matrimonio y su cónyuge, primero cambie usted. La ciencia nos dice que para cada acción hay una reacción. A medida que cambie su comportamiento, el comportamiento de su cónyuge cambiará también. Los hábitos molestos y los fuertes defectos de personalidad pueden ser muy irritantes, pero la respuesta grosera o enojada a estos defectos puede abrir una brecha entre los cónyuges. En lugar de tratar de cambiar a su cónyuge, trabaje en cambiar su respuesta a ellos. Una respuesta grosera, negativa o degradante siempre empeora la situación y es un pecado contra el amor del que usted es responsable. Convierte lo negativo en positivo y crece en santidad al no hablar.

Comparte esto con tu cónyuge. Pregúntale qué tipo de hábito tan molesto le gustaría que cambiara. No haga una excusa para eso. Esta semana, tan a menudo como puedas, simplemente intenta corregirlo. Puede llevar meses reemplazar un mal hábito con un buen hábito. No te rindas. Comienza a decir La Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia como parte de tu nuevo hábito saludable. Pídale a Jesús que te ayude a ser amable con tu cónyuge y que aumente tu capacidad de amar.

As we think about Jesus' 40 days of temptation in the desert, let us pray that God will fill our hearts with gratitude this Lent. Because Jesus defeated every temptation of Satan, we can overcome sin's temptation in our own lives.

Lent is the perfect time to put into practice the virtues we know will help build good habits. Then we will be truly free to choose good for ourselves and for our families.
